NOTE

You may want to ask a friend to help lift or hold the handlebars while you set the upper cover in place.

PROCEDURE

STEP 1 INSTALLING UPPER COVER

Use a tank cover or thick blanket to cover your gas tank. Remove the two nuts that fasten your handlebars the triple tree using your 19mm socket. Lift the handlebars upward until the riser bolts are free from the triple tree and gently lay your bars on the tank cover. (See PIC.1.) With one hand, hold the handlebars up and with your other hand set the upper cover in place. Be careful not to scratch the cover with the riser bolts. (See PIC.2.) Once the cover is in place re-install the handlebars. Adjust the cover's position until both fork caps are centered in the openings before fully tightening the risers.

STEP 2 Installing chrome cap (See PIC.3)

Set the cap in place with the set screw towards the tank and fasten tightly using your 5/64" Allen wrench.
